SMITTY'S NEW STUNT—Smitty, the motorist who everybody knows, has a new stunt. It's name is Pyrene. He sells it. Smitty, which is the true and correct name of this the agency for this new and wonderful automobile fire extinguisher, and he now salutes every friend and patron with the question, "Have you seen my Pyrene?"

DON WILLETS BACK—Don Willets, chief deputy United States mar-

He allows that for escaping heat, his was in the metropolis of south California. Still, the wave of heat, he says, is only a temporary one, and soon the coast town will be as pleasant as before.

meeting of the stockholders of the La discussion that little of the business of the evening was accomplished. As a result, there will be another meeting of the same company in the same place, next Friday night, for the consideration of the many business matters that were left over from last night's session.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH]
NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—The immigration authorities did not molest Miss Jean Wickham when she arrived today from Liverpool to prepare the way for Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the British militant suffragette leader. Mrs. Pankhurst is expected on October 18. Miss Wickham went to the woman's suffrage headquarters to meet Mrs. O. H. P.
Belmont. She told the reporters the methods used by the militant suffraettes in England was absolutely necessary in order to get some attention of officials there. "We never attacked a human life," she said, "but if the worst comes to worst there is strong likelihood we will do so."

London Transit Strike Situation Now Appears Brighter.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH]
LONDON, Sept. 19.—The strike situation in London was improved tonight. The busmen who had not already gone out, agreed to a truce pending the arbitration by the board of trade of their demands on their employers. The motormen and conductors of the Tilling Omnibus company, however, will remain idle in the meanwhile which will keep 500 busses off the streets. Two motorbus companies which agreed to recognize the unions will continue to operate vehicles even if the arbitration, now pending fails.

Concho

CONCHO, Ariz., Sept. 17.—Public schools opened here on the eighth of September with M. A. Crouse as principal and Miss Mildred Davidson as primary teacher. Miss Davidson has enrolled forty-four pupils up to date in her room with good prospect of a steady increase. The teachers and pupils have been quite busy in getting to work in harmony with the new state text book law. Our state text books were a little late in arriving here and made the schools a little extra time and work to get started.

We are sorry to hear that some of the schools of the county are yet without teachers as the new school law compels the school districts to have an eight-month term, and it is time the schools should begin.

The Concho Mercantile Co. received this week a large consignment of goods for fall and winter trade.

The new hotel is opened up and ready to receive the weary traveler and also to give him something good to eat.

Ambrosia Candalaria came in this week from his sheep camp and reports sheep doing very nicely, as feed is coming on fine since the late rains.

A small cloudburst last week at the head of Concho creek made the creek at the crossing here unfordable for a while. One automobile attempted to cross and of course got stuck in the mud and water and had to have a team to pull it out.

F. M. Whiting, the teacher of Upper Concho, made a pleasant call on this place and talked of a joint county teachers' institute and hoped this county would see its way to join the institute at Phoenix during the state fair in November next.

The writer would be pleased to endorse the sentiments of Mr. Whiting and many others in having the county institute at Phoenix, this year, at the time of the state fair.
